April 8, 2022

Universidad Adventista de las Antillas (UAA) received an allocation of funding for direct student support from the Higher Education Emergency Relief Fund III (HEERF III) which is authorized by the American Rescue Plan (ARP). HEERF III financial aid grants to students may be used for any portion of their cost of attendance, and/or for emergency expenses due to COVID-19 such as: tuition, housing, food, transportation health care, mental health care, and child care.

Universidad Adventista de las Antillas received a total of $6,159,576.00 from the Department of Education under ARP. The total amount of funds that UAA received for distribution of emergency financial aid grants to students was $ 3,085,258.00. A remaining of $49,638.00 of HEERF II were added to HEERF III available funds.

On March 2022 a total of 823 students were awarded ARP Grants for a total of $1,554,046.00.

There will be no other round of grants.

HEERF III Application (Round 2)

To be eligible students must:

- Be enrolled for SP-2022 semester/trimester as of January 31, 2022
- Priority given to students who are identified as having exceptional need.

Eligibility parameters were established based upon several factors, including stipulations in the federal ARP, federal law, U.S. Department of Education guidelines and internal financial aid procedures. Universidad Adventista de las Antillas (UAA) used criteria to develop a plan for assisting as many UAA students as possible.

Notification to students

All eligible students were notified via E-Cams Student Portal. The funds were distributed through check or direct deposit.
